

BISMARCK MANDAN MAKE YOUR MARK

The Bismarck-Mandan ND region is the primary commercial center that serves the agricultural sector in the western and central part of the state, and has the key elements for successful food processors with the potential for future growth. A growing preference and demand nationally drives opportunities for specialty food processing and manufacturing.

Bismarck-Mandan's rail, ground, and air transportation systems, market access, reliable utilities, and ready workforce makes it the ideal location for your business.

It's the place to make your mark.
